GETTYSBURG SUPPLY HOUSE

G. J. Slonaker, Prop.

J. R. Albin, Mgr.

The very heavy fall of snow in the mountain states of the west is causing very heavy loss in both cattle and sheep, as much of the forage they subsist on in the valleys is deeply covered with snow. Some flockmasters are offering at $1 per head sheep that two months ago they would not have sold for $3.

It is strange that the stock judges at the big shows don't insist that animals outside of the fat steer class ripe for slaughter should come before them for honors in normal breeding trim instead of the overfed, fat and logy condition which characterizes so many animals in the show ring. Especially is this true of the heavier breeds of cattle, which have to be stuffed and polished for weeks and put into an unnatural condition in order to fit them for exhibition. The harm in the system lies in the fact that it gives a wrong impression and leads many a breeder to believe that unless an animal has mountains of fat on it it is not well bred, which is as far as can be from the truth.

IRISH TOM IS IN JAIL AGAIN

Man Banished from the County Gets on Noisy Drunk and is Taken in Charge by Officer O'Riley. Gets One More Chance.

"Irish Tom" came near being good for board and lodging in the Adams County Jail until November first, after the blue birds have ceased their singing and the good old Summer time has faded away. Officer O'Riley arrested the man Monday evening for being drunk and disorderly, placing him in the lock-up for sober reflection.

On Saturday the Court banished Tom from the county saying that if he were found within its borders after Monday he would be sentenced to prison until November first, to be fed on the plainest of food and be allowed as little exercise as possible.

As his last day for leaving the county was not over when he was arrested the time was extended one more day.

The sentence of the Court evidently had very little effect on the Irishman for early Monday morning he sallied forth and in new hat and other well kept clothes looked very respectable. Toward evening, however, he was in far different shape. The hat was sitting at an unusual angle on his brow, his clothes somehow took on a different appearance from that of the morning and the big man gave all evidences of being on one of his noisy drunks.

Yelling and singing he walked up and down the streets of town and through the Square making things generally unpleasant for pedestrians. During the evening he wandered into the establishment of S. J. Bumbaugh where he made himself obnoxious. Officer O'Riley was summoned and placed the man under arrest. On the way to the village bastille the prisoner slipped on a crossing and fell heavily. It was feared that he had been hurt but he managed to get to his feet and was finally landed behind the bars.

He will be liberated and given a chance to leave and escape imprisonment.

GEORGE W. KREPPS

George W. Krepps, keeper of the toll gate above Roundville, died very suddenly at his home Sunday night about 10.45. He had, recently, about recovered his usual health and was in good spirits when he retired. About 10.45 he awoke and was in the act of placing a cough tablet in his mouth when he fell over into the arms of his wife and expired. It is thought that death was due to acute indigestion.

About sixteen years ago he was married to Miss Mary Poe, daughter of the late Oliver and Mrs. Mary Poe, who with the following children survive him: Ralph, Earle, Clyde and Miss Ruth, all at home.

He is also survived by his mother, Mrs. Katharine Krepps and the following brothers and sisters, Elmer Krepps near Fairfield; Mrs. B. F. Hartman near Mrs. Harvey Stephy, Roundville; John Krepps, Zullinger, and Mrs. John Davis, Waynesboro.

SLEIGHING PARTY

The following composed a sleighing party which was delightfully entertained at the home of Charles Wolf above Bendersville Monday evening: Misses Wolford, Alice Longsdorf, Nettie Heiges, Bertha Heiges, Myrtle Watkins, Pearl Rice, Dora Walter, Messrs. N. C. Thomas, Nile Thomas, Sewel Kapp, Sterling Longsdorf, Guy Raffensperger, George Shank, Ernest Hartman, Charles Asper. The party was taken in a big four horse sled by Mr. C. A. Griest and a merry time was enjoyed.

A STRONG SHOW

A merry contingent of singers and dancers make up the personnel of Neill and Hollway's funny seashore comedy "A Wise Boy," which will be seen at the Walter Theatre Thursday, February 10. The scenes being laid at the seashore in midsummer give ample opportunity for bright, breezy costumes. Many specialties, songs and musical numbers are introduced to give the audience a chance to catch its breath. The theatre going public of Gettysburg should not miss this opportunity of witnessing one of the best attractions of its kind on the road.

WILL EXHIBIT COUNTY APPLES

Adams County Apples to be Shown at Pennsylvania Fruit Show in Philadelphia Next Week. Took all Prizes at State Meeting Recently.

At the exhibit of Pennsylvania fruit to be held in Philadelphia next week there will be a display of Pennsylvania apples from the recent State Horticulture Meeting composed largely of Adams County apples. They will be in charge of Chester J. Tyson who will explain the superior quality of Pennsylvania apples to the vast number of visitors expected at the exhibit and who will endeavor to boost the apples of this state in every way possible.

The showing made by Adams County apples at the meeting at Tunkhannock several weeks ago was most noteworthy. Counties from all parts of the state had apples there and the first prize was awarded to Adams County. Fifteen hundred absolutely perfect apples on three hundred plates made up the exhibit from this county, almost every variety grown in this section being represented in the display which was made up of fruit from the orchards of a score or more of owners in this county.

In addition to the county prize offered there were two individual prizes both of which came to Adams County, Chester Tyson winning the first and Robert Eldon the second. In other words Adams County captured everything.

An interesting feature of this meeting was the display of boxed fruit from Oregon. A comparison of the Eastern and Western fruit resulted, in almost every instance, of a verdict in favor of that grown here though it was admitted that the color of the Western fruit was unusually fine. The Western fruit sells for as much per box as the Eastern per barrel.

The exhibit in Philadelphia next week will take place at 39th and Woodland avenue.

REVIVAL BEGUN

The annual revival meeting of the United Brethren church began Monday night with a small congregation of about sixty. The pastor hopes for better attendance later on. This church had a good revival last year with 40 conversions, most of whom have clung to the church. A few have gone back to their old ways. It is always so. The pastor's invitation to all is hearty and the door is wide open and the pews are all free.

WALKED FOUR MILES

George Patterson, son of Ruler John Patterson, of Glen Farney, cut himself severely with an ax while chopping fire wood on the mountain at wild cat rock and then walked to his home a distance of four miles. The ax cut an ugly gash, 2 1/2 inches long, in his ankle, just at the joint, and that part of his leg rapidly became stiff. His tramp of four miles to his home was a remarkable exhibition of nerve and grit.

MANY DEER SEEN ON THE MOUNTAINS

Bucks and Does with no Appearance of Fear Come out into the Open Many Fine Specimens Seen in Last Month.

Reports from the South Mountain deer hunting districts tell of large numbers of deer making their appearance in some sections. In several instances fine bucks have come out into the middle of the road with no apparent fear of being molested.

Bucks and does have both seemed unusually plentiful during the last month and scarcely a week passes that reports are not brought in of the fleet footed animals being seen.

Hunters have recognized for some time that deer apparently know the difference between the open and the closed season, showing far less fear in the latter and seeming to realize that they are in no danger after December first.

It is also known that the bucks and does take refuge in reservations where hunting is not allowed and, after the season closes, come out to their customary haunts.

The news of the deer being so plentiful on the mountain will be pleasant to Adams County hunters for it will insure the usual good hunting during the fall of 1910.

NEW OXFORD

New Oxford, Feb. 1—George A. Miller, one of New Oxford's best known citizens, while in Auker's drug store on Monday, was taken suddenly ill, falling to the floor, he was removed to his home and Dr. J. L. Sheetz summoned. He is improving slowly.

THREE TIMES

Local operators at Duquoin, Ill., have been notified that the famous Leiter coal property in Franklin county has changed hands. An Eastern corporation, it is stated, has purchased the property, the town of Zeigler and about 10,000 acres of coal land for $8,000,000. The new company will sink another shaft and operate two mines.

The deal was made by Joseph Leiter's mother after her son had refused longer to operate the mine. During Leiter's administration at Zeigler, the mine was three times wrecked by explosions in which more than a hundred lives were lost.

NO SURFACE HEARING FOR AT LEAST A WEEK

Secretary of Agriculture Critchfield will not take any action for at least a week, and possibly longer, in the charges made by A. F. Satterthwait, formerly assistant economic zoologist, against Economic Zoologist H. A. Surface. While the economic zoologist is appointed directly by the Governor, that officer is responsible to the Secretary of Agriculture and for that reason Governor Stuart has left the entire question to Critchfield.

Secretary Critchfield is not well, however, and even if he should be able to be about during the coming week he expects to be busy attending the Philadelphia meetings of the Pennsylvania Dairy Union and the State Live Stock Breeders' Association.

He has already said that he expects to give careful consideration to the Satterthwait charges at his earliest opportunity and to announce his future course. Both Satterthwait and Surface want an investigation.

Three of the leading paragraphs in the charges preferred by Satterthwait allege that at divers times Surface took to his Mechanicsburg farm an incubator, a gasoline engine and a field potato spraying machine. No denial of this is made.

When claims were made by friends of Surface that these articles are registered as State property, Superintendent of Public Grounds and Buildings Samuel B. Rambo was questioned as to the truth of the claim. Superintendent Rambo says that a considerable number of pieces of machinery and the like are registered as property of the Division of Economic Zoology, although located in different parts of the State wherever they may be placed in the work of the division.

MANY TO TAKE CENSUS TEST

One Hundred Expected to Take Test for Census Enumerators in Adams County. Divisions for Work about Equal.

On Saturday the examination for the census enumerators in Adams County will be held in the High School building. There will be about 100 candidates to be examined.

There are about 250 applicants for appointment for the position of census enumerator to be filled in the various districts in York county. There will be about 50 of the applicants examined at Hanover by John Schwalm, secretary of the civil service examining board. The examination at this place will be conducted by George P. Black, secretary of the civil service board, and F. Mark Bream.

In accord with instructions received from Washington, D. C., Mr. Elliott has arranged his district, consisting of York and Adams county, into such sub-divisions that each enumerator will have about the same number of people to count. The chart has been forwarded to the director for his approval, but has not yet been returned. The chief difficulty being encountered by the supervisor is in regard to the applicants failing to specifically state the election districts in which they reside. The ruling of the census bureau is to the effect that enumerators must be appointed in the districts in which they reside, unless not feasible.

HAS SURPRISE FOR BEEF TRUST

Judge Landis Zealously Guards His Evidence.

MANY INDICTMENTS EXPECTED

It is Said They Will Not Only Strike the Packers, But Will Be Felt in New York and Washington.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—The books and documents of the National Packing company were taken up for examination by the federal grand jury that is investigating the so-called meat trust. Before the end of the week it is expected officials of Armour & Co., Morris & Co. and the Swift company will be questioned.

More sensational than Judge Kenesaw T. Landis' remarkable charge to the federal grand jury when it assembled a week ago, will be the coup that is to be sprung in the beef investigation when United States District Attorney Edwin W. Sims and Assistant District Attorney James B. Wilkerson have built up the foundation of their case against the packers.

This is the apparently authentic report that came out of the federal building, where Sims and Wilkerson spent part of Monday scrutinizing evidence that is to be submitted to the grand jury this week. Laying each stone in the superstructure of their case with infinite care to assure against the possibility of the discovery of technical flaws, the federal lawyers will occupy most of the week in presenting to the grand jury documentary evidence and testimony of an apparently unimpeachable nature.

But the big evidence in the case, the evidence which Judge Landis is guarding zealously against even the queries of Washington authorities, and which, it is expected by those in the district attorney's office, will result in the return of a half dozen sweeping indictments, will not be brought out in the least detail until each step has been nailed hard and fast.

Then disclosures will be slammed down before the members of the grand jury, which, it is said, will not only strike Chicago's Packingtown, but will be felt in New York and Washington as well.

In an official report to the Illinois state food commission, State Inspector Hoeve declares that horses are being slaughtered by the wholesale in Chicago and the meat is being sold and distributed for human consumption. The meat, he says, is being cut into roasts, steaks and sausages, and is being sold to free lunch vendors in Chicago and to some farming districts and mining camps where foreign miners are employed.

Heretofore, says the report, it was the general belief that all horse meat prepared in Chicago was for shipment to Copenhagen, Denmark, and the fact that it is being put up for home consumption is looked upon as necessitating a new state law regulating the killing of horses.

Alderman Dennis J. Egan will present to the city council an ordinance prohibiting the cold storage men from keeping supplies more than sixty days. Egan declares that the cold storage places are used to heap up foodstuffs and cause what seems to be a scarcity of supply which raises the prices abnormally.

POSTAL BANKS AID TO THRIFT

Senator Carter Speaks in Favor of the Pending Measure.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The United States is the only first-class power in the world to deny to the people the privileges of a postal savings bank, declared Senator Carter, of Montana, speaking in the senate on the bill to establish postal savings banks, favorably reported from the committee on post offices and post roads.

Answering objections against postal savings banks, Senator Carter asserted that they would not be a menace to the present banking system of the country; that the commercial banks, even if they were sufficiently numerous, could not reach the people in the rural and sparsely settled districts, whom the postal banks are designed to benefit. The postal depositories, he declared, would encourage thrift and bring into circulation much money now kept in hiding, and would help foreigners who now send much of their savings home for deposit in savings banks in their own countries to place it in the care of this government.

By the terms of the bill any person over ten years of age is eligible to make a deposit, although no account of less than $1 can be opened and no person may deposit more than $100 in one calendar month or more than $500 altogether, not counting therein accumulated interest. Interest is to be at the rate of 2 per cent per year.

SON'S WIFE FACES TILLMAN

Keeps Children on Law Which Legalizes Deed of Gift.

Columbus, S. C., Feb. 1.—Senator B. R. Tillman and his son, B. R. Tillman Jr., were present when the case of Mrs. B. R. Tillman, Jr., against the senator and his wife for the custody of the two children of young Mrs. Tillman was taken up by the supreme court here. Young Mrs. Tillman was also in court.

Senator and Mrs. Tillman rest their case entirely on the statute law of South Carolina, in part as follows: "The father of any child or children under the age of twenty-one years and not married, may dispose of the custody and tuition of such child or children during such time as they remain under the age of twenty-one years, to any persons."

Under this act his son deeded the two children to Senator and Mrs. Tillman.

No effort has been made to assail the character of young Mrs. Tillman, but in his affidavit Senator Tillman says he believes it to be the intention of the young wife to go to another state, get a divorce and remarry, in which case the children would be put under a stepfather.

"Thank God," adds the senator, "there is no such thing as divorce in South Carolina."

150 MINERS ENTOMBED

Explosion in Colorado Colliery Traps Men at Work.

Pueblo, Colo., Feb. 1.—An explosion in the mine of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company at Primero, near Trinidad, has entombed 150 men and all are believed to be dead.

Three dead have been found near the entrance to the mine. Telephone wires are not working and newspaper men must go thirty miles by automobile to the mine to get details and then go fifteen miles by automobile to the nearest telegraph station.

BITUMINOUS MINERS MEET OPERATORS

Wage Conference May be Long Drawn Out Affair.

Toledo, O., Feb. 1.—The conference between the coal operators of western Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana and the representatives of the miners opened in this city today. Unless some ground can be found on which the interests of both sides can be harmonized a long drawn out conference will result.

A strike is also possible involving 90 per cent of the coal miners of the United States and Canada. The miners will demand an increase of 10 per cent in wages. The Indiana operators have already instructed their representatives to demand a 15 per cent reduction of the miners' scale. While there has been no conference between the Ohio and Pennsylvania operators, there is no question that they will demand a substantial reduction.

This is not only the talk of the operators, but it is predicted upon the positive statement in complaints of the operators that conditions during the past two years under the present 90 cent scale have been so disastrous to operating interests as to render the coal business in Ohio profligate. The Ohio and Indiana operators claim the competition furnished by West Virginia and other unorganized states makes a wage increase impossible and places the responsibility clearly up to the union.

FALSE TEETH SAVED LIFE

Husband, After Wounding Wife, Shot and Killed Himself.

Traverse City, Mich., Feb. 1.—Lying in wait for his wife, from whom he had been separated, Wesley Withey shot the woman while she was on her way to work with her sixteen-year-old daughter.

Withey then shot and killed himself. Mrs. Withey's plate for her false teeth deflected the bullet and she will recover.

The Only Way

Many Gettysburg Citizens Have Discovered It.

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected, is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to life-long suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth or age, languor, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness make life a burden.

There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys and cures these troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills owe their world-wide fame to the fact that they cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Follow the example of this Gettysburg citizen and you will be convinced that this is so.

Mrs. Frank Tawney, 28 Breckenridge St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with excellent results. I publicly endorsed them two years ago and hold just as high an opinion of them at this time. A member of my family was afflicted with kidney trouble for years and probably inherited it. This person suffered great deal from pains in his back and sides and was unable to control the kidney secretions. A co. always aggravated the complaint. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at the People's Drug Store and their use effected a complete cure."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

MORE PAY FOR READING MEN

Announcement of Increase Expected in Short Time.

Philadelphia, Feb. 1.—An important announcement regarding an increase of wages for its employees is expected from the office of the Reading railway in a very short time. It is understood that a new scale of wages is now being adjusted by officers of the company.

A short time ago President Baer gave orders for a material increase in the salaries of the office force. This is taken as a sign that an increase will be granted to the trainmen. The increase has been arranged on a scale, it is said, very similar to that adopted by the Lehigh Valley, and ranges from 20 to 40 per cent. The largest increases will be given to the locomotive engineers, particularly those on fast express trains.

$30,000 FOR BROKEN BACK

Baggage Master Sued Sea Board Air Line For Damages.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 1.—Ernest N. Duval, of Portsmouth, Va., was given a verdict of $30,000 in an action at Carthage, N. C., for $75,000 against the Sea Board Air Line railway for personal injuries. Duval, who is a baggage master on the Seaboard, was injured in a collision near Southern Pines, N. C., March 13, 1909, his back being broken, resulting in total paralysis from the hips down. The case was appealed to the supreme court of North Carolina.

HIT SURGEON WHEN HE CUT AMERICAN FLAG

Patient Leaped From Table as Knife Pierced Tattos.

Greenville, N. C., Feb. 1.—The piercing of a tattooed American flag by the knife of a surgeon caused a patriotic American to spring from the operating table of a hospital, strike the attending surgeon and declare that he would seek damages in the courts.

Tom Poole, the injured man, had been slashed three times across the abdomen while involved in a fight. A stray bullet had also found its way into Poole's breast. He declined to take any anesthetic and was watching the surgeon's skill with interest. Suddenly the knife ran through "Old Glory" which had been brilliant-ly etched into the man's skin. Like a flash he sprang from the table and knocked down the surgeon. Three hospital attendants finally overpowered Poole.

Poole declares he would rather have died than have the flag spoiled.

SHOT WIFE THROUGH BODY

Husband Was Angry Because She Testified Against Him.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 1.—Angry because his wife gave testimony against him for making threats which resulted in his conviction, Lewis Salakum, of Plymouth, loaded a revolver in her presence and then shot her through the body, inflicting a wound which the physicians declare is fatal. He is now in jail.

Salakum was jealous of Peter Vanoskey, a boarder in his house, and declared that if Vanoskey did not leave the house he would kill him. Salakum was arrested for uttering threats, and his wife gave the principal testimony against him.

Free Remedy For Weak Bowels

There are two forms of bodily cleanliness, the external and the internal. The one is for your pride in yourself; the other for your life and health. Both are important, but of vastly more importance in the long run is the internal cleanliness.

This is one point that all should watch about their body—the cleanliness of the bowels. Keep them clean and free from obstructions. To do this you must have one or two movements of the bowels each twenty-four hours. If your system does not do this naturally, in the process of eating and drinking, then you must obtain aid of some kind. After finding out that cathartics, salts and such things relieve you for a day, but bind you up worse than ever the next day, then try a simpler and more natural remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

For the skeptical the best way to begin is to send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell for a free sample bottle. See it as directed and if it convinces you that a brief continuance of its use will relieve you permanently—that it will train the stomach and bowels muscles to again work naturally at certain hours—then buy it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as so many others are doing. They began with a sample bottle, then bought a fifty cent bottle, and now, fully convinced of its merits, they buy the one dollar family size. All the members of the family can use it down to the very youngest.

A brief use of this grand laxative tonic will cure constipation in its worst form, indigestion, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and such ailments and keep you in continuous good health at a very small cost. Such is the experience of many families like that of Mrs. Constance, Unionville, Ind., J. P. Daniel, Sharon, Tex., and hundreds of others that could be named.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 52, Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

SWOPE POISONED, PHYSICIAN SUES

Kansas City Mystery is Nearing Solution.

STRYCHNINE IN HIS BODY

Nephew of Millionaire Sues Newspaper and Executor of Estate For $700,000 Damages For Slander—Accused Him of Planning Wholesale Murder.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 1.—Two sensational developments simultaneously in the Swope case. John G. Paxton, executor of the Swope estate, stated publicly in Chicago that the chemist's examination of the organs of the late Kansas City millionaire showed that he died from strychnine, and Dr. B. Clarke Hyde, nephew by marriage of Colonel Thomas H. Swope, filed two damage suits for sums totaling $700,000.

The defendant in one suit for $100,000 is John G. Paxton. The chief defendant in the other, for $600,000, is the Pulitzer Publishing company, publishers of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, with Paxton and two physicians as co-defendants. The latter are Dr. Frank J. Hall, a bacteriologist, and Dr. Edward L. Stewart.

The suit against the Post-Dispatch contains three counts based on interviews published in that newspaper. In each Hyde asks $100,000 actual and $100,000 punitive damages, making a total of $600,000.

The first allegation against Paxton for alleged slander recites that about Jan. 15 Paxton made statements against Hyde connecting him with the deaths by poisoning of the Swope. Hyde asks $100,000 for this statement.

In the suit against the Post-Dispatch he recites statements of Paxton and the two physicians which were published. The two physicians, with Paxton, are named as co-defendants in the Post-Dispatch suit. The other suit is against Paxton for verbal statements alone.

The Post-Dispatch story of Jan. 14 bore headlines reading: "Swope poison suspect watched by five detectives. Arrest in murder for $10,000,000 stake anticipated. Chemists search stomachs taken from two bodies exhumed. Plan to kill family with typhoid germs. Investigators who work secretly convinced of wholesale murder attempt and ability to fix blame on guilty man."

Then quoted in the petition follows the story which appeared in the paper under the headlines on that day. The story tells of a wholesale murder plot through the inoculation of typhoid germs and the admission of poison.

Murder Charge Basis of Suit.

The part of the petition in which Mr. Paxton's alleged statement is quoted follows:

"I believe that Colonel Thomas H. Swope and Chrisman Swope were poisoned and did not die from natural causes, and I believe that Dr. Hyde poisoned or caused them to be poisoned, and thereby cause their deaths. And I believe that he inoculated the Swope family with typhoid fever germs and caused several members of the family, including Margaret Swope and Lucy Swope, to contract typhoid fever."

"And that the plaintiff attempted to poison Margaret Swope and Lucy Lee Swope, meaning thereby and intending to mean and charge, and being understood by him who heard such statements to mean and charge that the plaintiff had murdered Thomas H. Swope and Chrisman Swope, and had attempted to kill and murder Margaret Swope and Lucy Lee Swope, and was therefore guilty of the crime of murder and was liable for capital punishment therefor, and also guilty of the crime of assault with intent to kill and liable to conviction and punishment therefor in the penitentiary."

Station Agents to Boost Good Roads.

The officials of the Pennsylvania railroad have started a movement to have station agents along its lines become good roads advocates in an effort to have the roads near the stations improved. The railroad officials believe that improvement of the roads would reduce the time that cars are compelled to wait on sidings when farmers are unable to haul goods over the poor roads in bad weather.

PARIS REJOICES

Takes Rigorous Measures to Ward Off Epidemic as Flood Subsides.

Paris, Feb. 1.—The improvement in the general situation continues, and the spirits of the Parisians are rising as the waters fall. Street hawkers are selling post card pictures of the flood and the boulevards are once more gay with rejoicing thousands.

The prefect of the department of the Seine has issued instructions to the owners of flooded houses to clean and disinfect their premises, to the satisfaction of the municipal architects within twenty-four hours after the subsidence of the waters. Otherwise the work will be done at the cost and risk of the owners. The government has ordered the tax collectors to show the greatest leniency to delinquents, and the Monte de Piété is extending pawn tickets for three months.

Several steam trams resumed the work of pumping out the subway, and considerable progress is being made in the sections where the flood is the lowest.

Public and private benevolence continues to respond to the call of the sufferers. All the theaters and musical societies are organizing benefits, while the various race courses are arranging a big meeting for the spring, the receipts of which will go to the poor. A resolution has been introduced in the chamber of deputies asking the government to award special crosses of the Legion of Honor to those who have been conspicuous in the rescue work.

Although the papers are printing columns of pitiful stories, a hundredth part of the horror and agony suffered never will be known. Many corpses have been swept down the river, and occasionally a coffin in a boat, which probably had broken away from a funeral procession. Scores of half-famished families have been rescued from their homes, and there are hundreds still occupying their half-submerged houses waiting for the water to recede.

ANARCHY REIGNS IN GEORGIA COUNTY

Night Riders Kill Negroes and Burn Their Homes.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 1.—Night riders are killing negroes in Columbia county and burning their homes and churches, according to information which has been received by Governor Brown. Such a state of anarchy seems to prevail, according to the reports, that Governor Brown has begun an investigation to fix the responsibility and to protect the negroes.

Negroes are leaving the county in large numbers and are listing their farms and properties with real estate dealers of Augusta, declaring that their lives are unsafe in Columbia county and that they intend to settle elsewhere.

Such terror has been caused by the night riders that it is said to be unsafe even for white people of Columbia county to talk. To delve into the situation and try to bring real facts to the surface would be at the risk of life.

Four churches have been burned within a scope of eight miles. At a place near one of the churches a negro was beaten. In another case an aged negro's house was entered by a band of mounted men at midnight. He was ordered out and his home fired. He was given twenty-four hours to leave the community. He took advantage of the opportunity.

Immediately thereafter another negro, reputed to be a hard working man, was ordered by a band to leave the community, and he did so. More recently a body of men went to the home of an aged negro. He was ordered from his home and was chased and shot to death. It is reported. The same night another negro church was burned. It is further alleged.

GARFIELD IN LAND PROBE

Coal Claimants Kept Him Out of Cabinet, Says Glavis.

NO SLUR ON PRESIDENT

Witness Declares Donald A. McKenzie Told Him Garfield Was Refused Office Because He Antagonized Alaska Coal Claimants.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The name of Donald A. McKenzie was brought prominently into the Ballinger-Pinchot inquiry, when Louis R. Glavis testified that McKenzie had told him that the reason James R. Garfield was not retained in President Taft's cabinet was because of his antagonism to the Alaskan coal claimants.

Glavis said he made an affidavit containing this interview, but denied when questioned by Senator Root that he regarded it as a reflection upon President Taft or that he intended to use it as an attack upon President Taft.

Senator Payne, of Kentucky, resigned from the committee and did not attend the session. Illness was given as the cause for this action.

The appointment of a successor has been left to Senator Money, the minority leader of the upper house of congress, and he offered the place to more than half a dozen senators without being able to induce any one of them to accept service.

Representative Graham, of Illinois, and Senator Fletcher, of Florida, both Democrats, alternately took up the examination of Glavis.

Glavis' attention was called to the fact that on Saturday he had testified that Bennett was anxious to have inducted support to be reappointed committed men of the land office. He was asked whose support Bennett had.

"I understand he had Representatives McKelvey and McLachlan, of Colorado, and Representative Kinkaid, of Nebraska, behind him," replied the witness.

"Were any of these claimants under the Cunningham group?"

"No, they were all in the Green group."

The witness said he had learned also in a letter from H. H. Schwartz that Senator Guggenheim was also supporting Bennett.

Answering questions by Senator Fletcher, Glavis said Mr. Ballinger, while commissioner of the land office, appeared before congressional committees in 1907 and favored a bill which would have validated all the coal entries in Alaska. Of the 800 or 900 claims there, Glavis said, he had reported favorably only on 21.

Glavis said that if patents had been issued 5200 acres of coal lands would have gone to the Cunningham group.

Question as to Ballinger

"What did Secretary Ballinger have to do with the Cunningham affair of Sept. 4, 1908?" asked Senator Fletcher.

"That is the one he prepared, at least I believe he prepared it, though I don't know of my own knowledge."

"Do you know a Donald R. or a Donald A. McKenzie?" asked Senator Fletcher.

"Yes, sir, I think it is Donald A."

"What relation did he bear to Commissioner Bennett and Secretary Ballinger?"

"He was very friendly with both."

The witness then told of a conversation he had with a Judge McKenzie, in which the latter said the reason why James R. Garfield was not in President Taft's cabinet was because of his antagonism to the coal claimants in Alaska.

"Did he tell and other reasons why Mr. Garfield was not in the cabinet?" asked Representative Olmsted, amid laughter.

"No, sir."

Koreans Slay 20 Japanese.

Tokio, Japan, Feb. 1.—Special dispatches from Seoul report a serious uprising of insurgents at South Phongsan, Korea. Twenty Japanese settlers are said to have been murdered. Troops have been sent from Seoul with machine guns. There is some doubt as to whether the cause is a general uprising or is limited.

Home Pasteurization of Milk.
Milk is most conveniently pasteurized in the bottles in which it is delivered. To do this use a small pail with a perforated false bottom. An inverted pie tin with a few holes punched in it will answer this purpose. This will raise the bottles from the bottom of the pail, thus allowing a free circulation of water and preventing bumping of the bottles. Punch a hole through the cap of one of the bottles and insert a thermometer. The ordinary floating type of thermometer is likely to be inaccurate, and if possible a good thermometer with the scale etched on the glass should be used. Set the bottles of milk in the pail and fill the pail with water nearly to the level of the milk. Put the pail on the stove or over a gas flame and heat it until the thermometer in the milk shows not less than 150 degrees or more than 155 degrees F. The bottles should then be removed from the water and allowed to stand from twenty to thirty minutes. The temperature will fall slowly, but may be held more uniformly by covering the bottles with a towel. The punctured cap should be replaced with a new one or the bottle should be covered with an inverted cap. After the milk has been held as directed it should be cooled. To avoid danger of breaking the bottle the water should be warm at first. Replace the warm water slowly with cold water. After cooling, milk should in all cases be held at the lowest available temperature.

Where it is to be had there is no ration for furnishing animal food or the flock of hens that surpasses sweet skim milk.

Fat Zeigler's bread

A BOY OF 1776.

By NATHAN HARDY.

(Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.)

General Washington was at Morris-town.

One morning when the general was in his office an orderly announced to him that Nicholas Halstead wished to see him. Easy of access, the commander in chief ordered the caller to be admitted and was surprised to see a boy of sixteen. The youth showed every evidence of distress.

"What can I do for you, my boy?" asked the commander.

"You can redress a wrong, general. I have been very badly treated."

"By whom?"

"The recruiting officers. They won't enlist me. They say I am under age."

"I commend your patriotism, my boy, and we need every soldier we can get. If there is no other reason than your youth to be brought against your enlistment I should like to see your wish gratified."

"Indeed, there are good reasons why I should be permitted to fight, general. Our family consisted, when the war began, of father, mother, three boys and two girls. The British killed father at the battle of Long Island; my oldest brother was shot at Harlem Heights; the next—one of your dispatch riders—was killed while crossing the Passaic river carrying a message from you to Colonel Burr in Westchester county. I, the youngest, am left to avenge their deaths."

The general looked at the boy with mingled admiration and astonishment.

"It seems to me, my young friend," he said, "that these reasons you have given me for your enlistment are rather reasons why you should not enlist. Your mother and sisters have given quite enough to the cause. It is your duty to protect them."

"But, general—"

"My decision," interrupted the general in a firm but kindly tone, "is that it is your duty to return to your home and stay there till the end of the war."

The commander took the boy's hand and pressed it warmly. Nicholas withdrew, wiping a tear from his eye. His last hope of being enlisted had vanished.

The next time Washington saw Nicholas Halstead was at daybreak of a Sunday morning when a New Jersey regiment was marching past the general in chief to go into the battle of Monmouth. Nicholas saw the commander sitting on his horse beside the road and endeavored to conceal himself behind the file in front of him, but Washington's quick eye lighted on him. The boy never forgot the look the general gave him on that occasion. It was one of mingled pain, admiration and reproach. Raising his hand, he motioned Nicholas to fall out of the ranks. The young soldier did so, and the commander said to him:

"Are you an enlisted man?"

"Yes, general. At last I found a recruiting officer who would pass me."

"Since you are in the military service and in this army you are under my orders. I desire you to carry a message for me. Go to your mother and tell her that her country will accept no more sacrifices at her hands and that the last one of her noble men shall remain with her by my order till he is discharged."

Nicholas burst into tears. The general, bending down, pressed the young soldier's hand; then, forgetting him in more important duties, he rode away.

It is a matter of history that there was a traitor in the American army high in command, that traitor being General Charles Lee. He did what he could to throw the victory into the hands of the British, finally on his own responsibility ordering a retreat of his own troops which involved other divisions of the American army. A panic followed, and the men fled precipitately, many of them frantically hurrying toward a causeway covering a morass.

Washington when he heard of the disaster pushed forward, placing the troops under his own immediate command at the end of the causeway near the enemy to stop the flight of Lee's and other troops. Among this force fighting at the causeway Washington caught sight of young Nicholas Halstead loading and firing at the enemy with the light of vengeance in his eye. There was neither time nor inclination to reproach the boy for disobedience of the order sending him home, but the general, maddened though he was with Lee's treachery, was not too occupied to notice Nicholas fighting at the most important point. The British were held off, the battle was renewed, and when the fight closed at nightfall Washington made his dispositions to attack the next morning.

Having slept during the night under a large oak tree, he awoke before dawn and mounted his horse. But the light of day revealed the fact that the enemy had slipped away under cover of the darkness.

During the morning while the commander was riding over the battlefield he saw a soldier get up from a pile of dead and wounded and stagger away. Calling to him, the soldier turned. He was Nicholas Halstead.

"You disobeyed my order, I see," said the general.

Nicholas, supporting himself on his musket, hung his head, but said nothing.

"Well," resumed the general, "there seems to be no possibility of keeping you at home, and, since you will remain with the army, I must put you where your honest patriotism and military ardor will do the most good. Obey the order I gave you so far as going home and remain home till you receive a commission, which will be forwarded you."

In the oleo-butter controversy which is on and likely to be brought up for consideration in congress at the present session justice would seem to demand that oleo be made to stand on its own feet and not be allowed to masquerade in any guise for creamery or dairy butter. Were human nature different oleo might even be allowed to be colored without working injustice if it were always sold for oleo, but once let it be colored and some grafter will palm it off on unsuspecting customers as butter and get butter prices for it.

PROTECTION FOR TREES.

Cornstalks and Wire Netting Shield Them From Vermin.

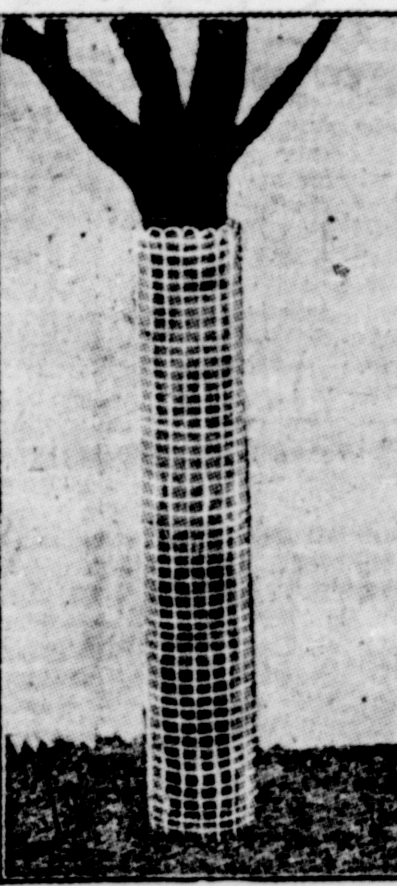

One of the most timely and useful bulletins seen in a long time is a recent pamphlet issued by the Ohio experiment station, Wooster. F. H. Ballou gives practical methods of protecting young trees from the attacks of mice, rabbits and other vermin. As all fruit growers know, these little animals often cause great loss by gnawing the bark from the base of the tree up. The damage is usually worse in hard winters, when the natural food of these animals is scarce. They have been known to work in open winters and to girdle completely some of our best young trees. Mice are worse, as the hunter puts most of the rabbits out of commission. There is more damage done in sod than in open ground, as the mice like to nest in the grass.

One of the surest ways to invite disaster is to leave a mulch close around the trunk of the tree. The mice will work under it. If there is a bare space for a few inches around the tree there is usually little danger, for the mice rarely cross a bare place to work at the bark. In an ordinary winter one finds a mound of earth or coal ashes almost a foot high at the base of the tree ample protection. With deep snow this often fails, as the mice sometimes work under the snow if there is a nest near by. With rabbits, of course, this mounding will not answer.

Mr. Ballou gives a number of plans for protecting the tree trunk. His pictures are so clear that little description is needed. The object is to put something around the tree trunk which will keep the vermin away. If rabbits abound this protection should be high enough to prevent their reaching over it when standing on their hind legs. Perhaps the simplest plan is shown in the first cut. Here ordinary cornstalks are used—cut to the proper length, placed around the trunk and tied with wire or string. Rabbits do not tear the stalks off. Mice would gnaw them, and to circumvent them a cut of wire netting can be used. This is put at the base of the tree outside the stalks.

Checkrein Abandoned.

When a horse stumbles he is far less likely to go down if his head is left free. In England, where they are far ahead of us in everything pertaining to horses, the checkrein has been abolished, the last surrender being that of the artillery and commissariat trains of the British army, the change having been made by Sir George Burgoyne, the late commander in chief, and he testifies to the beneficial results attending it.

The old time idea in the raising of hogs was to keep them confined in close quarters and stuff them with corn and small grain and sour swill. This idea, fortunately for the pigs, is giving way to a new and better method, including wider range, with a rape, clover or alfalfa pasture during the summer months, abundance of fresh water and such tonics as are needed to keep the system in the best condition. The adoption of the new method of care has not only meant health and comfort for the hogs, but increased profits for the owner.
